

DINNER AT THE YOUNG THIS EVENING

This evening the management of the Alexander Young Hotel will give a dance on the roof garden pavilions in honor of the visiting transports. As usual the officers and their ladies of the army and navy as well as the society people of Honolulu are cordially invited to attend.

MILITARY HOP AT HAWAIIAN HOTEL

Another of the famous transport dances will be given at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel tonight by Manager Church in honor of Colonel James Regan, the officers and ladies of the Ninth Infantry, as well as Captain Taggart, Quartermaster Captain of the U. S. A. T. Sherman, which ship should reach port this morning. In case of any delay in the arrival of the vessel, the dance will be postponed until Thursday evening. All army and navy officers, guests of other hotels and the Honolulu public are most cordially invited to attend. The famous Ellis Quintet will furnish the music, both during the dinner and afterwards for the dance. As the Sherman carries a full regiment the gala times of a few weeks ago will be repeated tonight on the breeze-swept verandas of the beautiful tropical hotel.

Cold, sparkling beer is a good thing, especially on a hot day.

The warm weather is at hand and a glass of the CRITERION'S beer will effectively off-set the heat.

This beer is treated by a process and is never flat.

Secretary Atkinson has been heard from, and had a very pleasant voyage, except that he was seasick all the way.

Former Sheriff Lorrin A. Andrews, of Hawaii, is making a strong fight for the nomination for sheriff of the big island on the Republican ticket.

The Punahou home of Claus Spreckels is being put in order for occupancy, it is said. This would seem to indicate that the family is once more going to reside in Honolulu, for at least a part of the time.

A Japanese magic lantern operator, Kawamoto, was instantly killed at Halaue, on the big island, last Tuesday while he was filling a tank with gas. The explosion of the gas tank blew a hole through his head.

D. S. Bowman, plumbing inspector at Hilo, came in on the Mauna Loa yesterday. He came to meet some old friends in the Seventh U. S. Cavalry, to which he formerly belonged, due to arrive here on the transport Sherman today.

H. P. Baldwin, who has just returned from a trip to the mainland with his wife, reports that leading sugar men agree that the drop in the price of the raw product is due to European speculation. He predicts an early return of better prices.

The voters of Molokai who assembled at Ualapue church on May 4th nominated a Home Rule Democratic ticket and named their preference for County candidates as follows: Supervisor, J. N. Uahinu; deputy sheriff, F. W. Beckley; county sheriff, Wm. White; auditor, D. K. Kahaullelo.

The crematory on Quarantine island is no longer available to the public. It has been decided, therefore, to call a general public meeting in the vacant store, Young Building, Friday afternoon, May 12, at 4:15 o'clock, when plans for providing a suitable public crematory for this city will be presented. The Hon. S. B. Dole will preside, Dr. F. R. Day, Hon. W. O. Smith, Dr. Wm. M. Kincaid, Mr. F. J. Lowery and others will speak.

"I would like to see an appropriation," said Governor Carter, "for stocking our island streams with fish from Mexico, where there are varieties to be had which may be expected to prosper here. The plan was suggested by Dr. David Starr Jordan when he was here, and he has offered to help us in the matter." The fish are counted upon to aid the campaign against the mosquito, and the Governor estimates that $1000 would be enough for the purpose.

A rumor, strengthened by the arrival of Colonel Sam Norris from Hawaii on the Mauna Loa, to the effect that the Norris ranch on the big island has been sold was current yesterday. The price was said to be $150,000, and it was stated that Colonel Norris had been called to Honolulu to sign the papers. The story, however, was denied. Mr. Stevens, with Jas. F. Morgan & Co., who was said to have charge of the matter, stated that the ranch was before certain parties for sale, but that the deal had not been consummated.

The "Hawaiian Troubadours," a band of seven young Hawaiians who are touring the eastern states, playing and singing Hawaiian airs, are making a good name for themselves and the islands. They have been playing in Buffalo. Recently they went to Boston and had the pleasure of being entertained and of playing for Mr. Benjamin Pittman, a Hawaiian, who is now a banker of that city. Mr. Pittman left the islands when a small boy. He was delighted with the Hawaiian music, it being almost new to him. Among the players was Malulani Kahea, son of Mrs. Maria Beckley-Kahea.
